Oviedo, Fla. (December 5, 2012) — As a gift to the community this Holiday Season, Huey Magoo's Chicken Tenders (www.HueyMagoos.com) will be providing free meals from 11 a.m. to 8 p.m. Monday, December 17 at both of its Orlando area locations. In addition, the company will be partnering with the Christmas Dreams children's charity to provide Christmas trees to select Seminole County families.

All guests will receive one free meal consisting of chicken tenders, french fries, Texas toast, dipping sauce, and a drink. The Christmas Dreams children's charity will be on site collecting donations, and a portion of those funds will help provide Christmas trees to families selected by the Seminole County Sharing Center.

"This is our way of saying Merry Christmas to our supporting community and guests," said Huey Magoo's co-founder Matt Armstrong. "And what better time to celebrate than at Christmas? Supporting the work of Christmas Dreams will help provide Christmas trees to families who cannot otherwise afford them—and it offers hope and happiness to children who suffer from life-threatening illnesses."

About Christmas Dreams

Thousands of children suffer from life-threatening illnesses. Their days are often filled with medical procedures, pain, and unanswered questions. Some of them will not live to see the next Christmas.

The goal of Christmas Dreams—a 501c(3) non-profit charity—is to provide a way for these children and their families to celebrate the joy of Christmas year-round, free of charge. At the Christmas Dreams facility, children will journey through time and space to celebrate Christmas with Santa, bake cookies with Mrs. Claus, and visit Santa's reindeer. They will play in a Christmas Tree House and even spend the night in its branches. They will race down Snow Mountain, play in real snow inside a magical cave, explore Santa's workshop, ice skate around a giant Christmas tree, sing Christmas carols, and much more.

"Huey Magoo's is a culinary dream come true...that is why Christmas Dreams is thrilled to partner with Huey Magoo's...together they are in the business of making dreams a reality," says Jeff Dixon, (title)

Christmas Dreams, located in Christmas, Florida, just east of Orlando is currently in the funding stage. To learn more about the mission of Christmas Dreams and learn how to become a supporter, visit www.christmasdreams.org or call 407-924-7331.

About Huey Magoo's

Founded in 2004 by former professional golfers Matt Armstrong and Thad Hudgens, Huey Magoo's was launched in Oviedo, Fla. on Alafaya Trail near the University of Central Florida. It was the partners' vision to provide a fun and wholesome dining experience characterized by great food and a love for people.

In 2009 Huey Magoo's expanded into Winter Springs, FL; and in January 2013, the company will open its first franchise location at the University of Central Florida Student Union. The Huey Magoo's team continues to serve mouth-watering chicken tenders, zesty wraps, fresh salads, hearty french fries, crisp coleslaw, homemade iced tea, and flavorful Magoo's sauce to its growing family of loyal customers.

But Huey Magoo's is more than just a restaurant. The company understands the importance of serving the community—by creating jobs, helping neighbors, and providing great meals at fair prices. For menus, maps, and more details, visit www.HueyMagoos.com.
